SSgS is a new strategy to promote UPM’s programmes through UPM student ambassadors.

Through this scheme, students who promote UPM and successfully recruit new postgraduate international students can apply for rebate worth RM500 per student subject to the following conditions:

a. The student ambassadors must be enrolled at the university with Continue status;

b. The new postgraduate student recruits are international students from abroad only;

c. The student ambassadors are required to provide assistance and guidance to the prospective students up to the completion of the registration process.

Each new postgraduate student recruit must complete the online application by filling in the student ambassador’s name and matric number as follows:
